The Humanities to Go speakers bureau makes high-quality humanities programs available to non-profit and community organizations across the state. These programs are open to the public free of charge. Humanities To Go brings neighbors together for learning and thoughtful conversation and connects NH residents to our states rich historical and cultural resources. This deceptively simple program offers a lifeline to cash-strapped local organizations that could not afford to create or pay for such programs on their own. In 2014, Humanities to Go partnered with 239 local host organizations in 152 NH communities to sponsor 440 programs attended by more than 19,000 people.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 186,902 including grants of $ 51,601) (Revenue $)

Community Project Grants enable the NHHHC to be responsive to the needs and interests of New Hampshire residents. In 2014, the NHHHC Board of Directors, through its Program Committee, awarded 23 competitive grants, totaling 51,601, which were matched by approximately 115,600 in cash and in-kind community support. Local innovative humanities programming made possible through grant making included community book, film, lecture and discussion series, teacher professional development workshops, community oral history projects, and documentary film production.

(Code) (Expenses $ 132,301 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 257)

NHHHC conducts the Connections adult literacy program. Connections is a book discussion program offered in partnership with adult basic education and ESOL classes, the prisons, and refugee resettlement organizations. Participants are both native speakers and new Americans. From our thematic reading lists, teachers can select books and themes that enhance the curriculum and connect to learners goals and interests. Participants keep copies of their books to read again and share with their families. There were 30 series conducted during 2014 at 17 different adult education programs in NH, attended by approximately 560 participants. A literacy celebration held in April with award-winning childrens author Lois Lowry was attended by more than 600 adults and children, including Connections participants and their families.
