The Martin Luther King Jr Concert Series Inc provided six free concerts of world renowned performers to the residents of Brooklyn and all of New York City. The shows are held on Monday evenings in July and August at Wingate Field in the Crown Heights/Bedford Stuyvesant area of Brooklyn. The series presents a different musical genre each week thereby providing a true celebration of the vast musical heritage inherent in the African American and Caribbean american culture. The corporation especially reaches out to senior citizens by providing at least one show geared to that demographic and to our Caribbean population with our annual Caribbean music night. The series increases access to and appreciation of various musical genres of our time to a population that otherwise might not have had the opportunity to experience these performers in a live setting if the shows were not free of charge.

Mission Description

Description

vast musical heritage inherent in the African American and Caribbean American culture. The corporation especially reaches out to senior citizens by providing at least one show geared to that demographic and to our Caribbean population with our annual Caribbean music night. The series increases access to and appreciation of various musical genres of our time to a population that otherwise might not have had the opportunity to experience these performers in a live setting if the shows were not free of charge.
