Detailed information for Part VII-B, Lines 1a and 1b

During the process of preparing the tax return for the Gevock Foundation, it came to the attention of the Foundation's president that an inadvertent act of self-dealing may have occurred during the fiscal year ending October 31, 2013.

This inadvertent self-dealing occurred at a fundraising event involving one of the charities that was a recipient of foundation grants and two of the adult children of foundation officers.

The amounts and individuals involved were as follows:

Adult child #1 - Value of round of golf for spouse and friends - $300

Adult child #1 - $100 gift certificate

Adult child #2 - $25 gift certificate

The potential self-dealing was corrected on or about Nov. 15, 2013 by having the officers' children reimburse to the foundation the potential value of the benefits as detailed above.

In addition the foundation reduced its Qualifying Distribution amount by the amount of this correction.

Since the individuals involved were not officers of the foundation, we are requesting abatement of any potential self-dealing excise tax.
