Part IIISTatement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The United States Golf Association promotes and conserves the true spirit of the game of golf as embodied in its ancient and honorable traditions. It acts in the best interests of the game for the continued enjoyment of those who love and play it. The USGA serves the game most visibly through the conduct of its national championships and international competitions. Together with The R&A, the USGA provides governance for the game worldwide, jointly administering the Rules of Golf, establishing equipment standards, and formulating the Rules of Amateur Status. The USGA also maintains the USGA Handicap and Course Rating Systems, develops and promotes sustainable golf course management practices, celebrates the history of the game, and fosters access to the game for all who wish to play.

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 78,444,941 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 113,391,397)

USGA Championships, including broadcasts - Each year, the USGA conducts the United States Open, United States Women's Open and United States Senior Open Championships, which include amateur and professional golfers from around the world. The USGA also conducts annually ten national amateur golf championships. In 2014, more than 40,000 people competed in these USGA championships. Additionally, more than 500,000 people attended these USGA championships as spectators. By exposing the public to these USGA championships through various spectator packages, national and international television and radio broadcasts, and digital and social media platforms the USGA promotes worldwide interest in the game of golf and inspires participation in the game. The USGA also leverages these same platforms to disseminate educational materials and information regarding environmental and economic sustainability, STEM education, diversity and inclusion, history, and other relevant topics. The USGA also sponsors teams for several international amateur golf championships.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 12,450,011 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 11,489,698)

USGA Members Program - Each year, the USGA provides educational materials and other support to people who have expressed an interest in the game of golf by electing to enroll in the USGA Members Program. Such educational materials include information and education about the Rules of Golf, USGA championships, environmental sustainability, STEM education, diversity and inclusion, and history, as well as other relevant topics. The USGA also provides a digital newsletter and access to the USGA's websites that include information on a wide variety of golf topics. In 2014, more than 660,000 people opted to enroll in the USGA Members Program.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 9,734,311 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 5,395,988)

GHIN (Golf Handicap and Information Network) - GHIN is a handicap computation service that allows golfers of differing abilities to compete against one another in a fair and equitable manner. This service began in 1981 with the Metropolitan Golf Association (New York) as the first user, GHIN currently provides services to 80 golf associations domestically and internationally, and provides billable handicaps to over 2.3 million golfers.

(Code) (Expenses $ 39,337,436 including grants of $ 6,574,908) (Revenue $ 5,256,395)

Each year the USGA provides a variety of programs that benefit everyone who plays the game. The USGA writes and interprets the Rules of Golf, and provides seminars and publications to educate golfers about the Rules. The USGA administers the Rules of Amateur Status in the USA and Mexico. The USGA monitors equipment standards to ensure that skill rather than technology represents the essence of the game. The USGA maintains national handicap and course rating systems to enable golfers of varying skill to compete fairly and equitably. USGA agronomists provide course consulting services to golf facilities throughout the United States and abroad for the purpose of advancing environmental and economic best management practices. The USGA Green Section also provides speakers, on-line publications and on-line conferences to educate interested parties about environmental and agronomic issues affecting the game of golf, as well as the broader community. The USGA provides grants to colleges and universities to finance turfgrass and environmental research to benefit golf courses and the environment. The USGA supports grassroots golf programs for juniors, as well as accessible programs for physically challenged golfers. The USGA provides education and information through public service announcements, championship webcasts, digital and social media platforms, publications, meetings and seminars. The USGA supports local, state and regional golf associations in their local efforts and provides grants to these associations to fund internships to help administer their local programs. The USGA maintains a museum dedicated to the game's history that serves as caretaker and steward of extensive historical collections.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part III, Line 1	The USGA Museum collection includes works of art, library materials, photographic images, film and video, and artifacts of historical and cultural significance. The collection is held for public exhibition, education and research. No value is assigned to the collection in the statements of financial position.
Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The USGA Museum maintains the world's largest and most complete collection of golf history. By collecting, preserving and interpreting the historical developments of the game in the United States, with an emphasis on the USGA and its championships, the museum promotes a greater understanding of golf's cultural significance for a worldwide audience. The museum sponsors a rich array of programs designed to educate and inspire the public about the history of golf and the USGA's role in the game's development. The museum offers a wide variety of programming to suit audiences of all ages. Artifacts from the collection travel across the country, as well as internationally, to USGA championship sites, member clubs, and national and local museums and libraries. A comprehensive website enables photos, videos and other historical content to be shared with a worldwide audience.
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	In 2011, the USGA Foundation ceased to exist. Remaining assets and liabilities of the USGA Foundation were accepted by the USGA. Included in the assets and liabilities were two permanent endowment funds that had been created as a result of donations received in the 1980's. The first endowment is to fund junior golf programs and is the result of a $20,000 donation. The donor specified that only earned income should be used. The USGA will comply with this restriction by using all earned income to fund junior golf programs in the year the income is earned. The second endowment is to fund turf research and is the result of a $30,197 donation. The donor specified that only earned income should be used. The USGA will comply with this restriction by using all earned income to fund turf research in the year the income is earned.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The USGA is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for any income derived from unrelated business activities. Tax of $80,159 and $144,586 were paid on unrelated business income in 2014 and 2013, respectively. The USGA filed the IRS Federal Form 990 and 990-T, as well as other forms required in various jurisdictions. The USGA adopted FASB ASC 740, "Income Taxes", as of December 1, 2009. Under ASC 740, an organization must recognize a liability for an uncertain tax position when it becomes more likely than not that the position will not be sustained. The USGA believes there are no material uncertain tax positions and, accordingly, has not recognized any liability for uncertain tax positions.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 2d	$8,807,425 is cost of goods sold, as per Part VIII, line 10b. On the audited financial statements these expenses are program service expenses. $6,114 is loss on sale of company car.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Investment income of $7,013,524, as per Part VII, Line 3. And realized gains on sales of investments of $14,637,788 as per Part VIII, Line 7c(i). On the audited financial statements, these revenues are netted against unrealized gains (losses) and investment management fees. On the audited financial statements, the net figure is recorded as an increase or (decrease) in net assets.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 2d	$8,807,425 is cost of goods sold, as per Part VIII, line 10b. On the audited financial statements these expenses are program service expenses. $6,114 is loss on sale of company car.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	The USGA provides very few grants to organizations outside the United States. Such grants are approved by the Executive Committee, and/or sub-committee. Staff monitors the use of the funds to ensure that the grants are spent for proper purposes and are not otherwise diverted from intended use. Monitoring may include formal periodic reports from the organization or informal reports, depending on the nature of the grant and the organization it was distributed to.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 3	In addition to the activities listed, the USGA owns shares of investment funds in the Cayman Islands and in the British Virgin Islands. Federal Form TD F 90-22.1 has been filed to report balances in these investment accounts. Also, Federal Form 8865 has been filed to report any current distributions to these investment accounts.

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The USGA provides grants to junior golf programs located throughout the United States, as well as to programs to assist physically challenged golfers. The USGA provides grants to state and regional associations to finance golf administration internships. The USGA provides grants to colleges and universities to finance turfgrass research and environmental research that may benefit golf courses. In all cases, staff members monitor the use of funds to ensure that the grants are spent for the proper purposes and are not otherwise diverted from intended use. Monitoring normally includes formal periodic reports from the recipient organization, detailing program progress and use of funds. Monitoring can also include informal reports, depending on the nature of the grant and the organization it was distributed to. For example, grants to junior golf programs typically require the recipient organization to complete a formal assessment report that includes information about program outcomes, financial compliance, participant statistics, program schedule, instruction provided, and follow-up support. Such information is subject to audit, at the USGA's sole discretion. In all cases, unspent funds must be returned to the USGA. Grants to state and regional associations for golf administration internships typically require the recipient organization to complete a report describing the internship activities and accomplishments, and account for all internship salary payments. Additionally, the intern is required to complete an evaluation on their internship responsibilities and confirm the duration of their employment. Again, unspent funds must be returned to the USGA. Grants to colleges and universities for turfgrass research and environmental research typically require the recipient organization to complete a report describing in detail the results of the research, and account for all funds spent. Unspent funds must be returned to the USGA.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part I, Line 6	The estimate for volunteers represents people who serve on a USGA committee or USGA sub-committee. The estimate also includes the thousands of individuals who volunteer their time at USGA championships, and contribute toward the success of those USGA championships.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part IV, Line 8	The museum collection, consisting of historical artifacts, works of art, library materials, photographic images, film and video, and other golf memorabilia is owned by the USGA

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6	The USGA is an association of member clubs and courses. While application for membership is open to any golf club, golf course or golf training facility, as specified and defined in the USGA By-Laws, voting privileges are limited to member clubs. Voting privileges do not extend to member courses or to member golf training facilities. Membership applications are reviewed and subject to approval or rejection at the discretion of the Executive Committee. Membership is automatically continuous unless interrupted by written resignation or expulsion in accordance with USGA By-Laws. Acceptance of membership binds each member to uphold all provisions of the USGA's Certificate of Incorporation, and By-Laws and other rules, to accept and enforce all rules and decisions of the Executive Committee acting within its jurisdiction and to otherwise conduct itself in a manner that furthers the interests of the USGA to promote the best interests and true spirit of the game of golf. (The USGA is organized and exists under the Non-Profit Corporation Laws of the State of Delaware. The USGA is a non-stock entity.)

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a	The Executive Committee is the governing body of the USGA. The Executive Committee consists of fifteen voting members, including the five officers. Each member of the Executive Committee is elected at the annual meeting of the USGA and holds office until the annual meeting next succeeding his or her election and his or her successor is elected and qualified, or until his or her resignation or removal. Each member club is entitled to be represented by one voting delegate at the annual meeting of the USGA. Duly certified proxies may be voted by voting delegates at the annual meeting of the USGA.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b	The USGA By-Laws provide that they may be altered or repealed by member clubs acting pursuant to the By-Laws

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Federal Form 990 is compiled by USGA staff. After appropriate staff has thoroughly reviewed the Federal Form 990 and deemed it to be accurate and complete, a copy of the Federal Form 990 is provided to the Executive Director and to all Executive Committee members (all voting Board members) for their review. After the Federal Form 990 is reviewed by all Executive Committee members, it is signed by an officer and submitted to the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The USGA requires Executive Committee members and USGA employees to administer their affairs honestly and efficiently, exercising due care, skill and judgement for the benefit of the USGA. It is the responsibility of Executive Committee members and USGA employees to make a full disclosure of any personal involvement which might result in a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest on their part. Such disclosures are submitted to the Audit Committee Chair and/or the Chief Legal Officer for review and consideration as per stated procedures. Additionally, once a year, the USGA requires Executive Committee members and USGA employees to review the USGA's conflict of interest policy and submit a statement attesting to their understanding of and compliance with the policy. Any conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest must be included on the submitted statement. The Audit Committee reviews the statements and makes any necessary decisions to manage and/or eliminate the conflicts.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	On a periodic basis, the USGA does a thorough review of compensation for the Executive Director and the executive team. This review includes a compensation survey by an independent compensation consultant, and consideration of comparability data obtained from other sources. The survey and data are carefully considered by the USGA's Compensation Committee to ensure that compensation is reasonable and appropriate. Mercer prepared an "Executive Cash Compensation Update" (Intermediate Sanctions) report dated November 9, 2012. This report would have been used to make compensation decisions for USGA executives for calendar (and fiscal) year 2013. Substantiation of the deliberation and decision of the compensation committee is maintained in the meeting minutes. In addition, employees of the USGA undergo a thorough evaluation process at the end of each year. Performance and goals are carefully reviewed and documented, then discussed with the employee. Merit increases and bonus awards are determined based on these evaluations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 16b	The USGA has a joint ventures policy to ensure that all arrangements are consistent with the organization's tax exempt status under IRC Section 501(c)(3). Specifically, the purpose of the policy is to set forth guidelines to help ensure that arrangements with for-profit entities will not jeopardize the USGA's tax exempt status.

Return Reference	Explanation
