| Part X, Line 2   | McREL follows guidance related to the Uncertainty in Income Taxes accounting standard which requires them to determine whether a tax position (and the related tax benefit) is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based solely on the technical merits of the position. McREL believes they have appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, do not have any uncertain tax positions that are significant to the financial statements. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions would be recorded in the period assessed. No interest or penalties have been assessed in 2014 and 2013. The entity's tax returns for the previous three years are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after initial filing. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Every board member is required to review and sign a conflict of interest policy disclosure and submit it to the CFO at the annual board meeting. The information is reviewed and shared with the board's executive committee to resolve the conflict. No conflicts of interest arose in fiscal year 2014.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | Under McREL's bylaws, the board of directors delegates the determination of the CEO's compensation to its executive committee. The board has established minimum requirements for this process which include: 1) The executive committee utilizes independent compensation studies (updated at least every two years) in its deliberation regarding CEO compensation. This committee may also utilize information received by McREL from its compensation consultant or from other sources it determines are appropriate. 2) For other employees, the CEO utilizes independent compensation studies (updated at least every two years) for his/her decisions regarding compensation for direct reports, and requires all staff compensation to be determined with consideration of independent compensation studies either through approval by the CEO and/or his/her designee. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | All copies of the organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available for inspection at McREL's office upon request.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c             | McREL's finance committee assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of McREL's financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed from the previous year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
