Part III, Line 31: Other program services include:

Rachel Corrie Memorial Ramadan Football Tournament: The foundation partners with the Rachel Corrie Sports Initiative, the Al Basma Club for Disabled, and other friends of Rachel in Gaza to provide an annual sports tournament focused on building community. This year's event included events for women and disabled as well as football. Hundreds participate on teams, and several thousand are inspired watching.
(Grants: $11,200 - foreign grant) Total Expenses: $11,581

Leadership Studies Fellowship: A program of experiential learning for one student from Gaza to interact with U.S. citizens and institutions for three months, exchanging ideas about learning, religion, government, law, economy, and other aspects of our cultures. The program not only impacts the fellow, but also those met here and back home.
(Grants: None) Total Expenses: $942

Rachel Corrie Children and Youth Cultural Center, Rafah, Gaza Strip. Gaza schools must operate in shifts due to overcrowding, and this program, named for Rachel Corrie, provides adult guidance and activities for young people before and after school. This grant provides books for the students at the center. Impact is not only on the dozens of children in the program, but also on their families and community. The grant from RCF went to Middle East Children's Alliance, a US 501(c)(3) organization, and was not a foreign grant.
(Grants: $1,158) Total Expenses: $1,272

Total Expenses: $1,275*Part V, Line 35:

The Rachel Corrie Foundation for Peace and Justice holds public forums, lectures, and conferences from time to time and also periodically attends the functions of other groups to educate the public on peace and justice issues. At these events, the foundation often has a table with brochures and other literature about the foundation and about various peace and justice issues. In addition, to educate the public about the economy of the Middle East and to attract people to our table for the free information, at these tables we often sell olive oil made by small farmers in the Middle East and distributed in the U.S. on a fair trade basis. We also carry several books related to peace and justice issues, the most expensive of which is about $14. We do ask that the public pay for these more expensive items, as the foundation does not have the resources to give them away. Most sales are made away from the foundation's office by unpaid volunteers. While the gross profit from this activity ($4,085) is above $1,000, the activity is exempt from tax both because it is related to the foundation's exempt purpose and because the sales are substantially by unpaid volunteers. "An unrelated trade or business does not include a trade or business: 1. In which substantially all the work is done for the organization without compensation..."
