Uncertain tax positions	The Credit Union is exempt under IRC 501(c)(14), from federal and state income taxes. Certain products and services provided by select state chartered credit unions have been deemed by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), in technical advice memorandums (TAMs) released in 2007, to be unrelated to the specific entity's exempt purpose. As presented in the technical advice memorandums, the net taxable income from these products and services would be subject to income taxes. Credit Unions have litigated against the IRS positions noted in the TAMs and have been successful in having courts declare in 2009 and 2010 that revenue from insurance products sold to members, helping them protect their financial wellbeing, qualifies as exempt purpose income, contrary to the IRS position in the TAMs. The Credit Union filed its annual 990 tax return for 2013, which indicates that Credit Union had no unrealized business income tax. The taxing authorities have the ability to assess taxes, penalties and interest for any years for which no tax return was filed. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from taxing authorities imposing income taxes on the net taxable income from activities potentially deemed to be unrelated to the Credit Union's exempt purpose is not expected to have a material effect on the Credit Union's financial position or result of operations. The Credit Union evaluated its tax positions and determined no uncertain tax positions exist as of December 31, 2014 and 2013. The credit Union's 2011 through 2014 tax years are open for examination by federal and state taxing authorities.

PAGE 6 PART VI SECTION B LINE 12C - WRITTEN CONFLICT OF INTEREST	Each year the Code of Ethics, which incorporates the Conflict of Interest Policy, is updated and ratified by the Board of Directors. The Code of Ethics pertains to employees as well as the Board of Directors. Annually, all employees and Board Members sign an acknowledgment that they have received and read the Code of Ethics. Further, all employees and Board Members must identify, in writing, all deposits and loan accounts in which they have a related interest. PAGE 6 PART VI SECTION B LINES 15 A & B	Board review of Officer Compensation. The credit union's Board of Directors assigns responsibility to the Board's Personnel Committee for the preparation of a written performance evaluation of the credit union's President. The Personnel Committee is comprised of independent directors. The Personnel Committee will then present the written evaluation to the full board, along with a recommendation for compensation. The compensation level is based on a combination of the President's perceived value to the credit union and job performance. Based on the Personnel Committee's recommendation, the full Board approves the President's compensation. For members of senior management, written performance evaluations are prepared by the President and reviewed with the Board's Chairman. No other Board Directors are involved in the compensation discussions for senior management. Compensation is based on the value to the credit union and job performance.
