Return Reference	Explanation
Escrow and Custodial Arrangements	Schedule D, Part IV, Line 2b At times, Root Capital co-lends with other organizations and administers the entire loan. Credit counseling and debt management services are provided by the co-lender. In many locations, Root Capital bears the responsibility to create a triangulated partnership between the co-lender, borrower, and commercial buyer. This creates an added measure of security for Root Capital's clients by ensuring that their products can be sold at a fair price, and helps buyers contribute to the local economies. The escrow funds represent a timing difference between repayments from borrowers and transfer of funds due to co-lending partners. The escrow account is also used when a buyer pays Root Capital the full amount of the money owed to a supplier/borrower. Root capital deducts the principal and interest owed on its loan and forwards the remaining balance to the supplier/borrower.
ASC 740	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 Root Capital is a tax-exempt organization as described in Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is generally exempt from income taxes pursuant to Section 501 (a). ACCDER and Root Capital A C are organized and operated under the regulations of their respective countries, Peru and Mexico. Root Capital A C is a registered charitable organization in Mexico. The income tax consequences, if any, are reflected in the financial statements and do not have a material effect, individually or in the aggregate, upon Root Capital's financial statements. Root Capital believes it has taken no uncertain tax positions.

Directors and Officers complete a Conflict of Interest disclosure form each year, which is reviewed by Root Capital's Governance, Risk Management & Compliance (GRC) team, and vetted with legal counsel if needed. If it is necessary to review or clear a conflict related to the current work or activity of Root Capital, that conflict is brought before the Governance Committee of the Board. If the Director with the conflict serves on the Governance Committee, s/he is recused from the conversation. The Governance Committee ensures that any business decision that could be affected by the particular conflict is considered objectively by the Root Capital team and is in the best interest of the organization. The Governance Committee's conversation and decision with respect to the conflict is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and shared with the whole Board in the subsequent quarterly Board Book. Lending personnel at Root Capital are trained on Root's Conflict of Interest policy in the course of its annual Code of Ethics (COE) workshops. Before these workshops, all of Root Capital's internal policies are shared with the participants and, after the training, participants are asked to sign an acknowledgement form attesting that they have read the policies and completed the training. To ensure that lending personnel are clear regarding what constitutes a conflict of interest, it is always the case that one of the COE vignettes used in the training focuses on a conflict of interest situation involving a credit decision. Those who do not attend the training in person are required to submit a written response to the COE vignettes by year end.
