NARRAGANSETT BAY COYOTE STUDY - Since 2004 we have been working on factors effecting the apparent growth of the coyote population on Aquidneck and Conanicut Islands Since food has been linked to coyote fecundity we are examining food resource use using GPS collars The collars allow us to identify important foods for coyotes, and we have found that coyotes are heavily subsidized by anthropogenic resources We are using this information and other behavioral and habitat-use data to understand the role of the coyote in or local environment and communities We are working with towns to draft sustainable management and coexistence strategies

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations
