Part VI, line 11

Form 990, including the attachments, is prepared by an outside paid preparer. It is then presented to the Commander and the governing body. It is reviewed and signed off by the Chair of the Audit Committee. At the next scheduled monthly meeting, an announcement is made and written into the Minutes that Form has been filed and is available in the club's office, upon request, for a review and viewing by a club's member in good standing.

Part VI, line 19

All governing documents, policies and financial statements are available during the business hours for review by the members. All records are maintained in the club's office and, upon the freedom of information request, are available for public viewing. Copy of the completed Form 990 is forwarded to the parent organization in New York City. The public viewing announcement is on the parent's web site.

Part XII, line 2(c)

The Constitution and the By-law mandate annual election of a three member Audit Committee. The committee oversees the management of the club. The committee members meet quarterly to examine the financial records and the club's operations and subsequently present a report at the monthly meeting. They are present at the meetings of the Executive Board and partake in the discussions of the financial and economic matters of the club. They schedule meetings between themselves or with the club's officers to examine and evaluate the financial data and the material aspects of the club. The Chair has the right to demand information from the officers. The Chair also has the authority, if deemed necessary, to present to the membership a petition for an independent audit.
