Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Organization is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is classified as other than a private foundation. However, income from the sale of advertising not directly related to the Organizations tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Total UBIT expense recorded for the year ended was $13,931 resulting in an overpayment of $2,498 of federal and state tax which will be carried over to next year. Management has reviewed all tax positions recognized in previously filed tax returns in the U S federal and state jurisdictions and those expected to be taken in future tax returns. As of December 31, 2014, the Organization had no amounts related to unrecognized income tax benefits and no amounts related to accrued interest and penalties. The Organization does not anticipate any significant changes to unrecognized income tax benefits over the next year. The Organization is currently not under audit by any federal or state taxing authority and is no longer subject to tax examinations by the U S federal jurisdiction for years prior to 2011 and the state jurisdiction for years prior to 2010.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	It is the policy of The Movement Disorder Society (MDS) to ensure balance and objectivity in all decisions made by the Societys leadership. Therefore the MDS Officers and International Executive Committee members who influence the Societys decisions are required to disclose all financial relationships with any commercial interest, as well as any organizational or other interests they may have, on an annual basis. An individual must disclose to MDS any financial relationships(s), to include the following information: The name of the individual; The name of the commercial interest; The nature of the relationship the person has with the commercial interest. Relationships are defined as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months from the signing date of the attestation. This pertains to relationships with pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the field of Movement Disorders. Individuals must inform MDS if any changes in financial relationships occur. For an individual with no financial relationships to disclose, the Society must be informed that no financial relationships exist. An individual must also disclose to MDS information about all organizations other than The Movement Disorder Society for which they hold volunteer positions, to include the following information: The name of the organization; The volunteer position held. MDS Officers, International Executive Committee, Committee and Sections Chairperson are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest each year. The complete list of disclosures is reviewed by the Officers and International Executive Committee at their meeting in January/February. People with conflicts of interest are asked to excuse themselves from relevant discussions. Also, leaders who are not willing to disclose are required to do so or resign from their positions.
