Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The Fund has both a written conflict of interest policy and confidential disclosure policy. Both policies were updated in 2014 to comply with the New York Nonprofit Revitalization Act of 2013. Annually, all members of the Board of Directors and Officers are required to disclose any conflicts of interest by completing a conflict of interest questionnaire. The completed questionnaires of the members of the Board of Directors and Executive Officers are reviewed by the Compliance and Risk Officer of the Institute. Those containing any disclosures or potential conflicts of interest are referred to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee and, if appropriate, to the Audit Committee. At the same time it is confirmed to the Audit Committee Chairperson that the other individuals had not reported any disclosures or potential conflicts of interest. Following this annual disclosure, if a conflict of interest is subsequently deemed to exist, it is the duty of the individual with the conflict to disclose it.

For all cases where a conflict of interest exists, the matter is recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the Audit Committee or the Board. Where the conflict concerns any Board or Committee Member, he or she is not permitted to participate in any vote or deliberation on the matter nor be counted in determining the existence of a quorum for the purposes of any action of the Board or Committee considering the matter.

Response to Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a-b and Sch. J, Part I, Lines 3 and 6a-b (continued):

Adjustments to the compensation for the Secretary to the Board are reviewed and approved by the Institute's Compensation Committee following surveys carried out by independent compensation consultants. The Compensation Committee's decisions are reported to the Board of Directors and recorded in the minutes, which are kept for all Board meetings. Once approved by the Board at a subsequent meeting, the minutes of the meetings are signed by the Chairperson and Secretary to the Board.

Other officers' compensation is reviewed and approved by the President.

The majority of working time of the Vice President / Chief Investment Officer / Treasurer and the Assistant Secretary / Senior Investment Analyst is devoted to LICR Fund, Inc. activities.

The compensation arrangements of the Vice President / Chief Investment Officer / Treasurer and the Senior Investment

Analyst include participation in the LGI Investment Management Incentive Compensation Plan ("the Plan") established by LGI and reviewed and approved annually by the Compensation Committee of LICR Fund, Inc. following advice from an independent consultant in the field. This provides for payment of incentive awards, in addition to base compensation, based on relative achievement of performance objectives. Seventy percent of the incentive award is determined by a quantitative performance metric. That metric is based on performance relative to peer group performance and benchmark performance over a one and three year time horizon, with greater weight accorded the three year performance. The quantitative portion of the incentive award is reduced if the downside volatility of the LICR Fund portfolio is greater than that of the benchmark by a prescribed amount. The qualitative performance metric comprises up to 30% of the incentive award.

Minutes of the deliberations of all Committee and Board meetings of LICR Fund, Inc. and Ludwig Institute for Cancer Research Ltd are kept and are subsequently approved by the respective Committee or Board of Directors.
