Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The Foundation was incorporated in 2000 and is exempt from Federal income taxes as an organization (not a private foundation) formed for charitable purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Donors may deduct contributions made to the Foundation within the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Under Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Section 740, the tax status of tax-exempt entities is an uncertain tax position, since events could potentially occur that jeopardize the tax-exempt status. Management of the Foundation is not aware of any

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The mission of The Jed Foundation (the Foundation) is to promote emotional health and prevent suicide among college and university students. To achieve this end, the organization collaborates with the public and leaders in higher education, mental health, and research to produce and advance initiatives that: Promote awareness and understanding that emotional well-being is achievable, mental illness is treatable and suicide is preventable; increase knowledge of the warning signs of suicide and emotional distress; foster help-seeking so that those who need supportive services reach out to secure them, or are referred to services by a peer; build and strengthen resilience, coping skills and connectedness among young adults, their peers, families and communities; facilitate adoption of a comprehensive, community-based approach to promote emotional health and protect at-risk students on campus; and raise the importance of mental health services, policies and programs in the college selection process of students and parents.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Set to Go is a new program currently in development. Set to Go is designed to help high school communities prepare students for the emotional and mental health challenges of transitioning out of high school. The centerpiece of Set to Go will be an online resource center with a strategic framework, programs and resources designed for students, their families and high school administrators. The Jed Foundation has long understood the need for resources that allow students and parents navigate a smooth, safe, and healthy transition from high school to college, laying the groundwork for healthy and productive college years and beyond. Set to Go is an evolutionary program resulting from a re-execution of the Transition Year program. Expenses incurred for the program in the year ended December 31, 2014 include costs to develop and implement the newly revised program. The Transition

Year program expenses are recorded in Other Programs in the Statement of Functional Expenses for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Ulifeline is an anonymous, confidential, online resource center where college students can be comfortable searching for the information they need and want regarding mental health. The site includes information, interactive features, a screening tool and access to campus-specific resources for getting help. Currently, more than 1,500 colleges and universities participate in the Ulifeline network free of charge.

The Foundation and mtvU partner to manage Half of Us, a Peabody Award-winning and Emmy-nominated social awareness campaign, that uses on-air PSAs and programming, an online resource center (www.halfofus.com) and on-campus events, to raise awareness about the prevalence of emotional disorders on college campuses and connect students with the appropriate resources to get help.
