Part VI 12A-C: At DeafHope, the Board of Directors regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with our written conflict of interest policy at monthly board meetings. Each member of the Board has made a commitment to compliance with this policy by checking in with themselves and members of the Board about potential conflicts in open and respectful dialog. Each member annually signs our Board contract which includes this policy.

Part VI 19: DeafHope communicates to the public through announcements on our website, other social media and at events that our governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are held at our website and are viewable on our website. We regularly announce that these documents are also available for review by request to the Board of Directors or staff.

Part VI 11B: Our completed 990 forms are emailed to the full Board and staff for review prior to filing for discussion and revision as necessary
