Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Chief Executive Officer reviews form 990 before it is filed with the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, any director, principal officer or member of a committee with board delegated powers is required to disclose the existence of his/her financial interest and all material facts to the board of directors. The board members decide whether a conflict exists. If it is determined that a director or principal officer has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, the board will take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Chief Executive Officer regularly pulls comparative salary data from sources including 990s of similar organizations, idealist.org, salary.org, indeed.com and Chronicle of Philanthropy. The Chief Executive Officer and president discuss this data alongside performance reviews for each individual in the organization to determine compensation. Reports are provided to the board on request and staffing is discussed at every board meeting. The last review of employee compensation occurred in November, 2014.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to members of the general public upon request.
