The Big Payback was a one day, online giving event hosted by Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee where donors had the ability to donate to various charitable organizations through the mechanism created by CMFT.

God & Country was a dinner/music event hosted by a local church for the benefit of The Journey Home and another organization. The church distributed the net proceeds to the organizations and processed the donations and expenses. Therefore, we have no record of the gross receipts or costs, only the net income from the event that was distributed to the organizations.
