3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. The Organization kept the public informed about various social developments in the debate, especially the court system.

This included the engagement of special researchers to monitor the developing legal debate over marriage. Constituents were kept informed via special online and print communications about the examples of violations of religious liberty and harassment and intimidation targeting pro-marriage individuals, and online petitions of protest were deployed.

The Organization educated the public on how properly to advocate for marriage and debate in the public square on this sensitive issue. This involved producing and distributing resources across several media platforms, as well as highlighting material produced in the popular press or media. Special events were also a component of the mission, particularly the March for Marriage in Washington DC, which brought grassroots advocates, faith communities and families to the nation's capital for public display of support for the pro-marriage position.
