 Annual Conferences (including Conference Management) ISES holds an annual conference each year. The annual conference brings together scientists from throughout the world to exchange ideas and methods for research in exposure science. It provides a forum for communicating current epidemiologic research, facilitates international collaboration in research and training, and highlights emerging global environmental health issues. Most ISES annual conferences are held in the United States. Approximately every 3 to 4 years the conference is held outside North America to provide access for the international membership. The 2014 annual conference was held in Cincinnati, Ohio. There were 463 participants from the U.S. and other countries at this conference. The theme of the meeting was Exposure Science Integration to Protect Ecological Systems, Human Well-Being, and Occupational Health

4b (Code ) (Expenses $ 26,838 including grants of $ ) (Revenue $ ) Official Journal The official journal of the ISES is the Journal of Exposure Science and Environmental Epidemiology. All members receive a one-year online only subscription to this bi-monthly, peer-reviewed journal for each year of membership. Members of the Society maintain editorial control of the journal. The Editor-in-Chief and Associate Editors for Reviews are Society members. The Society pays the journal publisher, Nature Publishing Group, a per-copy cost for each issue provided to members. There is no difference in the cost for providing the issue to members inside or outside the U.S. In FY 2014, journal subscription issues were distributed 6 times per year to current members in electronic format.

4c (Code ) (Expenses $ 21,128 including grants of $ ) (Revenue $ ) Other Program Services Student and New Researcher Travel and Achievement Awards-An active Student and New Researcher Committee organizes special recognition at the ISES annual conference for student abstracts and promotes interaction with peers and mentors during the conference and through the internet throughout the year. ISES provided travel awards to ISES student and new researcher members attending the conference and presenting their scientific work through posters and abstracts. A poster competition for ISES students also provided cash awards for the most outstanding poster presentations. Scientific Achievement Awards Program-ISES recognizes outstanding scientists with four awards. Most of these are awarded annually. Nominations for each of these awards are solicited annually from the membership, and the awards are presented at the annual ISES conference. The ISES Awards Committee publicizes the awards through the society website, email, and other channels, reviews and selects the awardees, and administers the awards. The Jerome J. Wesolowski Award recognizes outstanding contributions to the knowledge and practice of human exposure assessment. The awardee receives $2,500 and presents the Wesolowski Lecture at the ISES annual conference. The Joan M. Daisey Outstanding Young Scientist Award recognizes outstanding contributions to the science of human exposure analysis by a young scientist. The awardee receives an ISES membership for one year and $1,000. The Constance L. Mehlman Award recognizes outstanding contributions in exposure analysis research that helped shape a national or state policy or that provided new approaches for reduction or prevention of exposures. This award is presented every other year or less frequently, based on nominations received. The awardee receives $2,000. In 2014 no Mehlman Award was presented. Web Site-The public ISES web site contains information about the history and organization of the society, e.g., officers and councilors, committees, by-laws, current and past Society conferences, employment opportunities, other events of interest, Society awards, an Exposure Science Glossary and a section for students and new researchers. The web site also includes externally hosted password-protected pages available to current members only, providing electronic access to the Society journal and a searchable membership directory, and allowing members to join or renew their memberships and pay dues online through a secure credit card processor.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 3 Description of Delegated Duties to Management Company
Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder	Any person with a professional interest in exposure science and environmental research shall be eligible for membership. Any person may apply by submitting an application and the annual membership fee to the Secretariat, or in the absence of a Secretariat, to the Treasurer of the Society. Membership shall become active the first day of the month following receipt of the first year's dues. Membership is for the calendar year. Any member may request, from the Secretariat or the Board, the policies and procedures governing membership status. The Society encourages and seeks broad participation from such disciplines as exposure assessment and analysis, occupational hygiene, toxicology, biochemistry, chemistry, biostatistics, statistics, epidemiology, wildlife management, ecology, and risk assessment, among others.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a How Members or Shareholders Elect Governing Body	The Board of Directors of the Society (hereafter referred to as the Board) shall be a President, President-Elect (when filled), Past-President (when filled), Secretary, Treasurer, nine councilors, and three student councilors. The Executive Officers of the Society shall be the President, President-Elect or Past-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Election and Qualification The Board of the Society shall be members of the Society (regular, student, emeritus, and other special membership classes as designated by the Board), elected individually by majority vote of the members voting by mail ballot or by a secure electronic ballot process approved by the Board. (a) The President shall serve for two years. At the end of this term, the President shall automatically assume the office of Past-President and serve in that capacity for one year. (b) The President-Elect shall serve on the Board for one year prior to becoming President. The President-Elect shall automatically assume the office of the President at the end of a regular term of office of the President or at any time the office of the President becomes vacant. In the latter instance she/he may succeed her/himself as President the following term. (c) The Secretary shall be elected in even-numbered years and shall serve for a period of two years, and is eligible to succeed herself/himself. (d) The Treasurer shall be elected in odd-numbered years and shall serve for a period of two years, and is eligible to succeed herself/himself. (e) Councilors, with the exception of the Student Councilors, shall be elected and serve for staggered terms of three years and shall be eligible to succeed herself/himself for a second three-year term. If a Councilor has served two consecutive terms, he/she shall not be eligible for re-election for one year after completing their second term in that office. One new councilor will be elected each year for each of the three sectors representing the Government, Academic, and non-governmental organization (NGO)/Private Sector categories. There shall be two Student Councilors who shall serve for two years. One Student Councilor will be elected each year so that the Student Councilors serve staggered terms of two years. The categories are as follows: (i) Government Councilors shall be elected from federal, state or provincial, or local government agencies or organizations. (ii) Academic Councilors shall be elected from public or private academic institutions. (iii) NGO/Private Sector Councilors shall be elected from business or commercial organizations, not-for-profit organizations, or other non-governmental and non-academic institutions or organizations. (iv) The Student Councilors shall be enrolled students in an undergraduate or graduate program at an accredited university or college. The Student Councilors shall also serve as members of the Student Affairs Committee. Members of the Board shall be elected individually by majority vote of the members voting by mail ballot or by a secure electronic ballot process approved by the Board. In the event of a tie vote, the President shall call a meeting of the Board of the Society prior to the first day of January or 14 days after the close of balloting if balloting is not completed by December 16 (see Article VI, Section 2) and the tie shall be resolved in favor of one of the candidates involved in the tie by majority vote of the Board.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 7b Describe Decisions of Governing Body Approval by Members or Shareholders	Members vote on changes to the organization's bylaws and other matters deemed appropriate by the governing board.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	A copy of the draft Form 990 is reviewed by the management company and the Board Treasurer. Then, a copy of the Form 990 will be distributed electronically to all executive board members upon filing.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 Other Organization Documents Publicly Available	The organization's bylaws are available on a publicly available page on its website. Financial statements are reported and distributed once a year to the membership at its annual meeting and are available to any member upon request. Quarterly financial statements are distributed to and reviewed by members of the governing body within a reasonable time after each quarter.
