b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part III, Line 1a If organization elected under SFAS 116 to not report are, historical treasures, o	As permitted by the provisions of FASB ASC 958, Not-for-Profit Entities, the Society does not capitalize donated works of art, books, or manuscripts or recognize them as revenue or gains. Collection items acquired either through purchase or donation are not capitalized. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets if purchased with unrestricted assets and as decreases in temporarily restricted or permanently restricted net assets if purchased with donor-restricted assets. Contributions of collection items are not recognized in the Statement of Activities. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected on the Statement of Activities based on the absence or existence and nature of donor-imposed restrictions. The Society's accounts do not include values of Philosophical Hall, built between 1785 and 1789, a national historic landmark, and its collection of books, manuscripts and works of art.
Part III, Line 4 Description of organization's collections and how it furthers its purpose	The Society's offices and exhibition galleries are located in Philosophical Hall, a national historic landmark. Its collection of books, manuscripts and works of art support research, discovery and public education through public exhibitions and the Society's research library.
Part IV, Line 1b Why is organization an agent, trustee, custodian or other intermediary for contrib	The Society is the beneficiary under a number of trusts administered by two banks. The assets of the trusts are not included in the Statement of Financial Position of the Society since the Society does not exercise any control over those funds and certain conditions must be met annually to receive the income. The income from the trusts for 2014 and 2013 was $178,457 and $219,241, respectively.
Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	Under the Society's endowment spending policy, 4-5% of the average market value at the mid-point of the previous three years is appropriated for current operations. The investment policy utilized by the Society attempts to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets (donor-restricted funds that the Society must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period as well as council designated funds). Endowments have been established for the following activities: administration, research, publications, meetings, library, Franklin Hall, and any other activity of the Society.
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Society is a publicly supported tax-exempt organization in accordance with the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been made. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal examinations by tax authorities for years before 2011. The Society recognizes interest expense and penalties in interest expense. There was no interest or penalties related to income taxes recognized for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013.
Part XI, Line 2d Other revenue amounts included in F/S but not included on form 990	Investment return designated for opera $637,498.1 Other investment income $507.7
Part XI, Line 4b Other revenue amounts included on 990 but not included in F/S	Realized gains (losses) $118,707.44 Interest on temp. cash investments $507.7 Dividends & Interest on securities $495,236.3 Contributions to Endowment Fund $613,520.43 Chestnut St. rental expenses $-59,908.

Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	The American Philosophical Society has certain committees that are responsible for the selection of individuals receiving disbursements in furtherance of the exempt programs. An application for a grant must be submitted either electronically or on typewritten forms provided for that purpose. Awards are made by the Society's Committees in accordance with the following principles: 1. Grants are intended to assist investigators by providing for costs of research work, such as the collection of scientific and literary materials, preparation of photographs, microfilms, and other records, purchases of supplies, necessary travel, and other incidental expenses of research. 2. Grants are not made toward the payment of salaries of members of the staff of an educational or scientific institution. Grants may not include institutional overhead. When a grant is made to a member of an institution to assist him or her in research of scholarly writings, it is expected that the institution will cooperate in facilitating the work. 3. Grants are not made for (a) salaries, fellowships, scholarships, or other projects involving personal expenses over long periods, (b) subsidies for publication, (c) usual or permanent equipment for the institution involved (but may be made for special apparatus needed in the proposed research), (d) travel to meetings, (e) expense of grantee's family. 4. Support of a long-continuing project is not undertaken, except in its initial stage. 5. No recipient of a grant shall thereby become an employee of the Society. The written agreement with the grantee sets forth the specific objectives of the grant and requires each recipient to file a written report with the Society. In the formal notification sent to all recipients of grants, there is a request that credit be given to the Society in the publication of work supported by such grants and that a copy of each publication be sent to the Society. To this has been added another statement that the Committee on Publications would appreciate an opportunity to consider publication of a manuscript, but there is no obligation that such a paper be published by the Society.
