| Part X, Line 2                        | Bay Area Council Inc. is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(4) and BACF is exempt as a 501(c)(3). BAC LLC is subject to both Federal and State taxation. For the 2014 and 2013 financial years, BAC LLC had reported net loss of $4,124 in 2014 and no net loss for 2013. There was no Federal and State tax liabilities due for the years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by BAC in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. BAC's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed. The China WFOE is subject to Chinese enterprise income tax ("EIT"), value added tax (VAT) applied to certain districts in China and business income tax ("BIT") prescribed by Chinese tax laws and ordinances. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, the WFOE accrued the equivalent of $25,000 USD and $34,903 USD for the estimated EIT and BIT tax liabilities, respectively. During 2014, the China Government tax authorities audited the WFOE for compliance and found no exceptions in recording our tax liability and subsequent payments associated with taxes due. |

| Schedule J - Expense reporting | The Bay Area Council has a written policy regarding expense report submission and reimbursement policy. None of the questions identified in 1 a above apply to the Council. All expenses must be supported by evidence of the type of expense, business purpose and receipts. Business trip travel requiring overnight stays require pre-approval. The Bay Area Council compensation policies and procedures for determining compensation are outlined in our Employee Policy Manual. Evaluations and approvals are secured for all staff members including the CEO and other officers. Approval is required. Regarding BAC employer contribution for health benefits, BAC provides uniform employer contributions for those individuals electing various health benefit coverage. The employer benefit may vary between employees because the employer contribution is depending upon whether an employee elects only for him or herself, for him/or her plus spouse, or full family coverage. Others may waive benefits because they are covered elsewhere in which case the employer contribution is less than what BAC provides or is zero if coverages are fully waived. |

Major companies join the Bay Area Council as members.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a          | The Bay Area Council Executive Committee may elect a member to the Committee and Board Members.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7b          | The Executive committee of the Board officially meets 4 times during each calendar year or as necessary to approve decisions based upon delegations of authority outlined in the bylaws. Should decisions require Board approval, these are voted upon by the entire board during the Annual meeting.                                                                                                                                          |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11          | The audited financial statements and tax returns are conducted and prepared by an independent CPA audit firm. The genesis of information presented on the 990 tax returns includes all of the audited figures. Copies of the tax return are made available to Board members and the Finance Committee. We submit the 990 tax return for posting to Guide Star so that our organization's activities are transparent to the public at large.    |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c         | The CEO and CFO has responsibility for monitoring and compliance with our policies. These policies are codified in our employee handbook, acknowledged by each board and staff member and also reviewed for compliance with current laws and regulations by outside legal counsel. The independent accountants also test for compliance in performing their independent financial audit at year end.                                           |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15          | The process for determining compensation for the CEO, CFO and key employees is benchmarking against comparability data with approval by the Board Chairman. We also have oversight by the Finance Committee of the Executive Committee Board. The BAC uses salary survey information provided by Opportunity Knocks as well as benchmarking the staff salaries with other similar 501(c)4 organizations of similar size and financial results. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19          | The organization makes its governing documents, conflicts of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request and is available in another organization's website.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Form 990, Part IX, Line 11d - Lobbying expense | The Bay Area Council, thru its BAC Political Action Committee (PAC) made a $50,000 contribution payments in support of 3 political propositions. The PAC's financials are included in this consolidated return. There are no BAC membership dues associated with BAC 501(c)4 lobbying activities. All lobbying is per se supported through the Bay Area Council Political Action Committee.                                                   |
