Part X: BrightPoint is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not classified as a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. BrightPoint is also exempt from Georgia income taxes. Income which is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and Georgia corporate income taxes.

Management considers the likelihood of changes by taxing authorities in its filed income tax returns and recognizes a liability for or discloses potential significant changes that management believes are more likely than not to occur, including changes to its status as a not-for-profit entity. Management believes that it met the requirements to maintain its tax-exempt status and that it has no income subject to unrelated business income tax, therefore no provision for income taxes has been provided in these financial statements. BrightPoint's income tax returns for the past three years are subject to examination by tax authorities, and may change upon examination.

Part IV: As part of its Sponsorship Services, BrightPoint provides a website presence, accounting, sponsoring event collateral, collections and disbursements, child and sponsor letter tracking, year-end tax statements as well as other services that are needed for their ministry partners (customers) to sponsor the children in their care. In return for providing these services, BrightPoint charges an administration and other fees (such as credit card fees) against the collected funds before disuring the remaining collected amounts to the partner organization. The services and fees charged are agreed to between BrightPoint and its ministry partners as outlined in a Memorandum of Understanding between parties.

Part 1, Line 2 Process for monitoring grants paid outside of the U.S.

Money is wired monthly to each of our partners outside the U.S. along with a remittance identifying the amount of the funding being sent for each program being administered by the partner. The partner will then send or take by hand the money to each of the homes/orphanages/schools that BrightPoint supports. In situations where we are paying education fees, we wire the funds directly to the school where we can. If not, our partner will hand take the funds to the school. We request receipts for the grants in these cases. Where we need to buy food, clothing, desks, etc., we will try to pay the supplier directly for the goods received and obtain a receipt in return. In this way, we limit the number of persons touching the funds. Finally, we expect each of our partners to provide us with monthly numerical reports on the use of the funds. If we are not satisfied with where the money has been spent, we will review the situation with our partners, and if necessary, discontinue our support for that particular program.

Additionally, for our key program locations, we make international on-site visits annually at a minimum to review the programs' effectiveness and evidence of appropriate program spending. These reviews are discussed with our partners

Money is mailed monthly to the 410 Bridge which in turn transfers the money to their organization in Kenya. We in turn request withdrawals from their account for support of the BrightPoint children's homes in Kenya. For Secondary School fees, we request each child's school term report which lists their grades and the fee for the next term.

We send the funds to the school directly when we can. For our basic needs programs, we receive a monthly statement from the homes identifying the uses of the funds. If we are not satisfied with how the money was spent, we will review and audit the situation with the home manager and decide our next steps at that time.
