Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

NACF provides support to Native artists and communities, fosters creativity among Native peoples, and advocates for greater support for Native arts and cultures For the year, our primary work consisted of individual artist fellowships, and piloting community based programming that engages communities on social impact We also sponsored a limited number of Native arts and cultures related activities, and provided counsel to the field through a number of avenues

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 251,840 including grants of $ 65,000) (Revenue $ 0)

Contemporary Native artists offer profound contributions to intellectual inquiry and global dialogue and work at the thresholds of exploration in unfolding creative terrains They are deepening their impact on the field of arts practice and are forging new recognition in national and international communities The NACF Artist Fellowships Program, during its fourth year, fostered the creativity of indigenous artists, allowing the opportunity for study, reflection, experimentation, and innovation NACF also added two new regional fellowship programs, one that focuses on Native artists and culture bearers enrolled in tribes within the states of Minnesota, Wisconsin, and the Dakotas, and another that focuses on Native Hawaiians in Hawaii and the continental United States

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 183,244 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Projects are artist-driven and designed to connect Native and diverse peoples in community conversations that address pressing social, cultural, and environmental concerns to create positive change Through the program, NACF enables artists and communities to inspire shared hopes and arts-based experiences to drive vital conversations In addition to funding select collaborations, the foundation assists the artists in strategic planning, including developing evaluation and documentation systems, and other assistance to help their projects engage participants to reach relevant outcomes

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 176,329 including grants of $ 92,760) (Revenue $ 0)

During the year we responded to the funding needs of a series of important projects that uniquely advance the voice of Native artists Among those were projects titled Saying our Share Surviving the Missions and This Is Not a Silent Movie

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Each director, officer, and staff member must annually sign a statement that affirms that such person has (a) received a copy of our conflict of interest policy, (b) has read and understands this policy, and (c) has agreed to comply with our policy. Compliance includes the following provisions: Whenever any director, officer, or staff member becomes aware that we are considering a transaction that potentially creates a conflict of interest, that person is obligated to notify the board and to disclose all material facts relating to the person's interest in the transaction. The board will determine whether an actual conflict of interest exists and take action that the board deems appropriate. The interested person may not be present when the board makes its determination other than to answer questions. If no conflict of interest is found to exist, the minutes of the meeting must record the basis of the board's determination. If the board determines that a transaction would create a conflict of interest, the transaction must be approved in advance by only those board members who do not have a conflict with respect to the transaction. Any interested person therefore must excuse himself from consideration of the transaction. Such person may not vote on the transaction or be present during any discussion of the transaction other than to answer questions. Interested persons may be counted for the purpose of determining existence of a quorum.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Compensation for the president/CEO was set by the board in 2013 based off original independent analysis, comparable data, and contemporaneous substantiation. The president/CEO sets the compensation for the CFAO using comparable data and contemporaneous substantiation.
