Gospel Research Scholarship Program

The purpose of this program is to encourage future religious leaders (Pastors, Teachers, Chaplains, etc.) at a religious University (Walla Walla University) to research in depth the Gospel of Jesus: Righteousness by Faith alone. It is our intention that as these students are committed to the Gospel, their ministry and outreach will affect a large and unnumbered populous with that Gospel - which is the purpose of our corporation.

We hold an introductory meeting at the University to explain the gospel and scholarship process and are available throughout the year to all applicants for any questions. Junior year Theology majors are eligible and are supplied with research materials, they research the topic write an essay, submit a sermon they preach on the subject and are interviewed on their experience throughout the scholarship process, which begins in September and ends April 15 when the above requirements are due. Our board uses these items to ascertain that applicants have done the research and understood the topic; these requirements are the sole indicators we use to determine those to receive a $5,000 scholarship awards towards their senior year expenses. We do not discriminate upon any basis; i.e. sex, age, handicap, finances, nationality, etc as meeting the requirements is our only basis for determination. As students do the research their lives and those of their friends and immediate families and are impacted by the gospel message. Their sermons, essay's and interview is published on youtube, our website, vimeo and emailed to individuals. Over 300 people benefited from these postings. Five individuals applied, Three meet our requirements and were awarded scholarships.

As our board discussed ways to further our purpose, a gospel research scholarship program was chosen so future religious leaders would discover the gospel for themselves; essentially putting individuals out in the world committed to sharing the same message as our corporation's purpose thereby widening our sphere of influence. Please see 990-EZ Part III #28 for more detailed information.
