990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US	As with Humanity United's (HU) domestic grants, before making a grant to a grantee outside the U S , HU performs due diligence, including anti-terrorism checks and a formal "pre-grant inquiry," as defined in the federal tax regulations, when required. In addition, HU determines whether the proposed grantee is eligible for 501(c)(3) public charity equivalency status that would permit the foreign grantee to be treated as a U S public charity for reporting purposes. To demonstrate eligibility for equivalency status, foreign grantees are required to provide extensive documentation related to their foreign tax status, governance and operations. Grantees (U S and non-U S) are also required to enter into a detailed written grant agreement that governs the use of grant funds and includes financial and narrative reporting requirements, including heightened "expenditure responsibility" restrictions and reporting requirements for those grantees that are not eligible for public charity equivalency status. Grantee reporting under the grant agreement is reviewed and approved by program and grants management staff, and these approvals are documented. The grantee's written reporting under the grant agreement is frequently supplemented by meetings, phone conversations and emails between HU and guidance staff, as well as site visits by HU staff to non-U S grantees.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a	Humanity United has a trustee travel policy for its board of trustees that requires all expenditures to be reasonable and documented, and requires travelers to make reasonable judgments in an environment of changing travel costs, as well as to be mindful of Humanity United's tax-exempt status. Because attendance at in-person board meetings requires significant travel (between 5 and 12 hours, depending on the trustee's home city), Humanity United permits travel in business class when business class is available and permits trustees to travel first-class if business class is not available. All trustees serve without compensation, except for the President of the organization who serves ex officio as a trustee. Humanity United has a non-trustee travel policy that applies to staff, including Humanity United's president and other executives. The staff travel policy prohibits first-class travel.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 Liberia/West Africa In 2014, Humanity Uniteds grant making program in Liberia/West Africa focused on three primary areas developing the capacity of local public and non-profit institutions to contribute to good governance, rule of law , and citizen participation in their own governance, supporting entrepreneurship in Liberia, and efforts to increase transparency into natural resource management and concessions In addition, Humanity United supported a variety of organizations and efforts in response to the Ebola epidemic in the second half of 2014

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The process followed for review of the Form 990 is to distribute it prior to the Board of Trustees meeting for independent review by the Board members. At the Board meeting, the Form 990 is presented and any questions that arise are discussed and addressed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Humanity United monitors and enforces its conflict of interest policy by annually gathering from the trustees, officers and key employees all conflict of interests and requiring all other employees to proactively disclose any conflict of interest as they arise. The policy outlines a process by which Humanity United evaluates and protects against undue influence by any person who may have a conflict of interest. The policy also outlines a process to be undertaken if there is a potential violation of the policy. Finally, the Board reviews the policy and its administration on a periodic basis.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	The process Humanity United conducts in determining compensation for our officers and key employees (note that Board members are not compensated) includes utilizing an independent outside consultant to conduct a compensation benchmark study and perform an analysis for each compensated officer and/or key employee. The independent consultant procures relevant benchmark survey data from both non-profit and for-profit survey sources to compile the compensation analysis for each compensated officer and/or key employee. The independent consultant presents the analysis for each compensated officer and/or key employee to the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees of Humanity United for review and approval. The Compensation Committee contemporaneously documents its basis for the determination of the appropriate compensation. Humanity United conducts this process on an annual basis and more frequently as needed for compensation increases to an officer or key employee, as well as for new hires which become officers and/or key employees.
