The bulk of these expenses are described. The largest amount of expenses is the direct result of program expenses. Mission trip expenses include a total of $47,551. Many receipts can account for this, those that come from business enterprises like hotels, gas receipts, stores that may exist, restaurants, and transportation entities. Some are not available that cover things like direct payment to drivers for 4x4 travel expenses, fees to government agencies, direct blessings to evangelical staff, and small business entities in third world Africa. Other expenses include: 1) air travel $14,112, 2) evangelistic equipment expenses of $6,364, 3) communications of $4,046, a large amount required for speaking to multiple parties in remote areas where there is no computer services, 4) mission travel document expenses of $1,228 and 5) Humanitarian aid in form of grain and pasta, $953.

Part II

Line numbers: 22-27 are different then the end of the year numbers for the return of 2013. The reason is the following: it was discovered during the board meeting of 2013 that there was an error in the financial report. The error is thus: a (-)620 dollar accounts receivable, which I believe is impossible. So Paula Timm our Secretary-Treasurer met with our board member Sheri Hensley, a financial planner with more experience in QuickBooks and they discovered the error. This resulted in a change in the end balance sheet of 2013 of +620 dollar in assets. This then is the amount that was used to calculate beginning of the year lines 22-27. If you would like us to send an amended 2013 return this is certainly possible. I just did not want to confuse things further. Changing that balance sheet I think would also change all previous years. However, the difference is $620. Thank you.
