Global Program: The School Fund (TSF) granted scholarships to 277 needy students in 14 countries in the developing world, working with 29 NGOs to identify eligible students and create a personalized profile and a detailed list of school costs for each student. TSF continues to develop and operate a person-to-person funding site where donors can view students' profiles. The online platform enables students to communicate with donors via online journals and supports a transparent payment process, with receipts from schools viewable on the website.

Annual meetings with TSF were held at schools where students are funded. Student progress was reviewed, after-school computer center activities and operations were assessed, and the commitment of the schools to TSF's programs was evaluated. Students eligible for future funding were identified. In June, 2014, TSF team members and volunteers held workshops for students and teachers in Karatu and Iringa.
