Part VI Supplemental Information. Provide the explanations required by Part II, line 10; Part II, line 17a or 17b; and Part III, line 12. Also complete this part for any additional information. (See instructions.)

Part IV, Section D - Substantially all of the net income from the Trust Estate is, ordinarily, distributed for the purposes of the trust in each year to the School of Education at Duquesne University, located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to be used to provide scholarships for worthy students maintaining a major course of concentration in that School of Education under such rules and regulations as the governing board of Duquesne University shall determine. It is respectfully submitted that the distribution of trust income in this manner enables and expands the ability of Duquesne University and those in its School of Education to carry out this mission of providing scholarships for worthy students maintaining a major course of concentration in that School of Education.

As the beneficiary organization, Duquesne University has the express power to enforce the various provisions of this Charitable Foundation in appropriate courts of competent jurisdiction in the State of West Virginia. Furthermore, under the governing instrument, Duquesne University has the express power to compel an accounting under West Virginia law. Under the governing instrument, the Trustee of this Charitable Foundation is under a mandate to render an account of receipts and disbursements at least annually to the President of Duquesne University or his or her designee and the Dean of the School of Education at Duquesne University or his or her designee. The amount of support received by Duquesne University is sufficient to ensure the attentiveness of Duquesne University to the operations of the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation. Although the annual distribution to Duquesne University and its School of Education does not constitute 50% of its income for endowed scholarship purposes in the School of Education, it is respectfully submitted that in order to avoid interruption of carrying on and satisfying the purposes of the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Scholarship Fund, Duquesne University and its School of Education will be sufficiently attentive to the operations of this Charitable Foundation. This is the case where both the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation and Duquesne University and its School of Education earmark the support received from this Charitable Foundation for purposes of the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Scholarship in the School of Education at Duquesne University. Without the continued support of the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation, Duquesne University and its School of Education might not continue to maintain the Scholarship Fund established by Elizabeth K. Wingerter and Duquesne University and called the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Scholarship Fund. Thus, the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation will be treated as providing Duquesne University and its School of Education with a sufficient portion of the University's total support to ensure its attentiveness to the operations of the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation. An example of acceptable evidence of actual attentiveness of the supported organization is the imposition of a requirement in the governing instrument itself that the supporting organization, which is the Elizabeth K. Wingerter Charitable Foundation, is required to provide reports at least annually to assist the supported organization in ensuring that the Charitable Foundation has invested its endowment and assets productive of a reasonable rate of return.
