Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

☐ ☒

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The Girls Foundation of Tanzania provides educational support for bright girls who would otherwise be unable to continue their education beyond primary school. Our support includes tuition scholarship, learning opportunities outside of the classroom, internships, access to medical services and career guidance. We partner with each student through the critical years of secondary and high school so each girl can achieve her educational goals and reach her full potential.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11  | A copy of the final form 990 is provided to each board member prior to being filed with the IRS. It is thoroughly reviewed by the Treasurer to ensure accuracy and completeness of content. The remaining board members may review it at their own discretion.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The conflict of interest policy covers directors, officers, and members of committee(s) with governing board delegated powers. The governing board or committee shall determine whether a conflict exists. An interested person (whose financial interest has created such conflict) may be present at the governing body's meeting, but shall not be present during deliberations and decisions regarding the transaction. The chairperson shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the governing body or committee shall determine whether the organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, otherwise a majority vote of the disinterested directors shall determine whether the transaction or arrangement is in the organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable and subsequently make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
