Footnotes and Cost Basis Information

Amortization, accretion and similar adjustments to cost basis have been provided for many fixed income securities (and some bond-like equities), however, they are not provided for certain types, such as short-term instruments, Unit Investment Trusts, foreign fixed income securities, or those that are subject to early prepayment of principal (pay downs) Where current year premium or acquisition premium amortization is provided, the prior years' cumulative amortization is reflected in the adjusted cost basis, but we cannot provide a breakdown or the total of such prior amortization amounts

NFS is required to report certain cost basis and related information to the IRS on the Form 1099-B Your official 1099-B forms for certain transactions will reflect which lots have been sold for tax purposes To apply a specific identification cost basis method to 1099-B reporting, appropriate instructions must be on file with NFS or be received by NFS before the trade has settled Absent such instructions, NFS determines cost basis at the time of sale based on its default methods of average cost for open-end mutual funds and first-in, first-out (FIFO) for all other securities (including ETFs) unless your broker dealer has elected to use another default method NFS applies FIFO (or other disposal method, if applicable) based on its records, which may be different from yours For transactions that are not subject to 1099-B cost basis reporting, you should refer to your trade confirmations and other applicable records to determine which lots were considered sold for tax purposes

While NFS must meet IRS requirements with respect to certain information required to be reported to the IRS, NFS-provided cost basis, realized gain and loss, and holding period information may not reflect all adjustments necessary for your tax reporting purposes NFS makes no warranties with respect to and specifically disclaims any liability arising out of a customer's use of, or any tax position taken in reliance upon, such information

For investments in partnerships, NFS does not make any adjustments to cost basis information as the calculation of basis in such investments requires supplemental information from the partnership on its income and distributions during the period you held your investment Partnerships usually provide this additional information on a Form K-1 issued by April 15th of the following year

Consult your tax advisor for further information

T - Cost basis information was provided by a third party We treat it as original cost basis, as of the date it is provided, and we assume that for equities, it reflects any prior corporate actions, and for asset-backed fixed income securities, it reflects any prior principal pay downs LT - Long-Term (Held more than one year)
