The Early Childhood Resource Center (ECRC) is a ministry of the Sisters of Charity Foundation of Canton. ECRC is dedicated to improving the quality of childcare in Stark and the surrounding counties. This is accomplished by providing training and networking opportunities as well as an extensive resource library to members. The members consist of families with young children, child care staff & community agencies serving families with young children. In 2014 ECRC provided 694 hours of professional development training and 2,083 members participated in ECRC's workshops. Thirty three career development training (CDA) classes were provided to childcare workers who are working to attain CDA credentials & thirteen childcare workers completed the CDA classes. ECRC maintains a production lab that is available to all members for a nominal annual fee. Members can use the lab to provide educational age appropriate materials and activities for preschool children. In 2014, the production lab was used 2,337 times. ECRC also provides accreditation and support services for home day care providers who wish to obtain NAFCC or NAEYC accreditation. In 2014 ECRC offered over 226 family programs that that focused on literacy, math, music, social studies and science.
