THE TIMKEN COMPANY CHARITABLE AND EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

2014

The Timken Company Charitable and Educational Fund, Inc. has two primary purposes. The first is charitable support. Through this fund, Timken improves the communities where our associates work and play through financial support. This financial support includes the Timken Matching Gift program, where donations of associates are matched up to $500 per year to approved 501(c)(3) organizations, and charitable grants to community support agencies.

The second purpose of the Timken Company Charitable and Educational Fund, Inc. is to provide scholarships to children and dependent stepchildren of associates or retirees of The Timken Company. The availability of scholarships is publicized each year by video, email & letters to associates and retirees. Applications are supplied through a third party vendor, Scholarship America, and the submission deadline is announced each year.

Financial Statement – 2014
