Johnson County Community Foundation maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public. This is done through year end mailings or solicitation of the general public by individuals/organizations supported by the Foundation. The public support percentage is skewed in 2014 by several substantial bequests made within the last five years. These funds are used to support a wide variety of community projects. We do have a Board of Directors who represent the broad interests of the community and we provide grants and scholarships that directly benefit the general public.

Part IV line 2 Custodial funds represent funds placed on deposit with the Foundation by other organizations based on their individual board resolutions. In addition, the Foundation has received a designated bequest which provided no variance power over the use of the funds and serves strictly as the trustee of the funds. The Foundation accounts for these transfers as a liability in accordance with applicable accounting standards. Income is added to these funds periodically in accordance with the Foundations's investment allocation policies. Contributions by, investment credits for, and distributions to these organizations are reflected as adjustments to the liability.

Part V Line 4 The endowment fund agreement establishes any restrictions of uses of the fund. An endowment fund can be designated for a specific charitable organization for field of interest. It can be donor advised or for scholarships. 4% of the Foundation's endowments are Board Designated.

Part IV Line 11f: "Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress."

Conflict of Interest Policy & Disclosure Statement

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Board of Directors of the Johnson County Community Foundation, Inc. (JCCF) that all members of the board and the board's committees avoid any conflict of interest, and to the extent possible, the appearance of a conflict of interest, between their personal interests and interests of the JCCF in dealing with any organization or individual having, or seeking to have, any relationship which results or may result in a conflict of interest with the JCCF. In order that this policy may be operationalized, the Board hereby declares:

1. All board and committee members shall disclose any potential conflict of interest at the earliest practicable time. Such disclosure shall be done at least annually and as situations present themselves during the year and shall become a matter of record.
2. No board or committee member shall vote on any matter under consideration at a JCCF meeting in which said member has a possible conflict of interest. Said member may be counted in determining the meeting's quorum. Said member should be prepared to excuse himself or herself from the room while the matter is discussed and voted on. The minutes of such meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made and that the member having a possible conflict of interest abstained from voting. The foregoing requirements shall not be construed as a prohibition against the member briefly stating his or her position on the matter, nor from answering any questions of other board members since his or her knowledge may be of assistance.
3. A board or committee member shall be considered to have a possible conflict of interest if: (a) said member or immediate family member has an existing or potential financial or other interest which impairs or might appear to impair such member's independent judgment in the discharge of his or her responsibilities to the JCCF; or (b) said member is aware that a member of his or her immediate family or any organization in which member or member of his or her immediate family is an office, director, employee, partner, trustee or controlling stockholder, has such existing or potential financial or other interest.
4. All candidates for membership on the board or a committee shall be advised of this policy prior to assuming their responsibilities as members.

Policy Adopted. November 4, 1992

Amended Policy Adopted. November 17, 1999
