Return Reference	Explanation
Pt IV, Line 2b	The Organization is holding funds on behalf of one homeowner for repairs to the home.
Pt X, Line 2	The Organization recognizes the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon settlement. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the ORganization and positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. Management has not identified any uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, and there are no unrecognized tax benefits recorded as liabilities in the accompanying financial statements. The Organization classifies interest and penalties, if any, associated with uncertain tax positions as a component of income tax expense. There was no accrued interest or penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits at either December 31, 2014 or 2013, or any interest or penalties expense related to unrecognized tax benefits for the years then ended. The Organization is no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service or the State of Indiana for years prior to December 31, 2011.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Pt VI, Line 3	The Organization is managed by employees of the City of South Bend. The City provides the Organization with the majority of its funding.
Pt VI, Line 11b	A draft of Form 990 is provided to all Board members for their review before being signed and filed by the Board President.
Pt VI, Line 12c	The Organization provides to its Board and committee members its Conflict of Interest Policy. That policy requires such individuals to disclose any potential conflict to the Board or committee. The Board or committee determines if such potential conflict is actually a conflict of interest. If it is, the Board or committee investigates whether a more advantageous transaction or arrangement can be made with another party that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If one is not reasonably available, the Board or committee determines by a majority vote whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, and whether it is reasonable, before deciding whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. The interested member is excluded from all discussions, investigations, and voting on the matter of interest. A member found to have violated this policy is subject to appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
Pt VI, Line 15a	The Organization has no paid employees (see explanation for line 3 above), so these questions are not applicable.
Pt VI, Line 19	Governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request at the office.
