Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Members of the Board of Directors will perform their roles and responsibilities and arrange their personal and professional affairs in such a manner that 1) public confidence and trust in our nonprofit is always maintained, and 2) Board members' honesty, integrity, fairness and good faith are always apparent to themselves and others. One of the fiduciary responsibilities of a Board member is the duty of loyalty to the nonprofit organization that they serve. That duty requires that Board members disclose potential or actual conflict-of-interest situations. These are situations where a Board member might appear to be, or is actually, taking advantage of their role as a Board member for his/her own personal gain. These situations can compromise a Board member's best judgment for the nonprofit when carrying out his/her roles and responsibilities as a Board member.
