Enrichment Through Giving

THE GOOD

GRANT POLICIES AND RESTRICTIONS

in accordance with federal law, policy and budget limitations, the USG Foundation, Inc. does not contribute to:

- Organizations without Internal Revenue Service tax-exempt 501 (c) (3) status
- Sectarian organizations having an exclusively religious nature
- Individuals
- Political parties, offices, or candidates
- Fraternal or veteran's organizations
- Primary or secondary schools
- Organizations that cannot provide adequate accounting records or procedures
- Courtesy advertising

The USG Foundation's fiscal year corresponds to the calendar year. In general, if a request is turned down, the requesting organization should wait a year before reapplying for a grant. In addition, an approved grant does not necessarily indicate that continued support will automatically be available the following year. For this reason, grant requests must be resubmitted on an annual basis unless otherwise stipulated.

Many people recognize that the path to enrichment lies in giving away a part of yourself. At USG Corporation, we recognize that by giving to the communities where we work, we enrich our lives and the lives of our families, friends, colleagues, customers, and citizens whom we may never meet but whom we can touch just the same. This enrichment through giving is why the USG Foundation was formed.

HISTORY

The USG Foundation, which began operation in 1979, builds on over a century of community involvement by USG Corporation and its family of companies. Its focus is on a planned program of charitable giving with specific end goals in mind.

GOALS

Just as USG impacts the communities in which it operates, these communities impact USG. For both the communities and the Corporation to fulfill their highest potential, business, civic, educational, cultural, health and welfare organizations must work together to solve the pressing problems that concern us all.

CRITERIA FOR GRANTS

To that end, the USG Foundation provides financial assistance to non-profit organizations seeking solutions to social, health and educational problems, and to those dedicated to the preservation and perpetuation of culture. This assistance promotes a positive, pro-active community environment for our employees, their families and friends, and for the business community at large. Contributions from the USG Foundation become an investment in a higher quality of life for us all.

USG Foundation grants are also an investment in USG people. The USG Foundation gives preference to supporting appropriate (see description above) programs in which USG employees and retirees are active participants. These programs can be of an established, traditional nature or worthwhile innovations. On occasion, the USG Foundation may see the need for a specific program for which no formal proposal was submitted. In cases such as these, the USG Foundation may take the initiative and actively solicit a well-defined grant that addresses a particular situation. The USG Foundation also strongly supports community-based fund campaigns like the United Way, that provide broad-based support to numerous community service organizations responsive to community needs. However, as a rule, organizations which receive united campaign funding will not be considered for additional USG Foundation gifts and grants.

HOW TO APPLY FOR A GRANT

All grant proposals must be submitted in writing. All proposals should include the following:

- A cover letter briefly outlining:
 - A statement of the need or problem
 - A summary of the background of the need or problem
 - Specific reasons why the USG Foundation, Inc. would be interested in the proposal
 - The amount of money requested and how it will be used
 - A copy of the organization's 501 (c) (3) tax exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service

We would also request:

- A statement of the program's purpose describing why the organization is involved in the project and a notation indicating any special qualifications the organization may possess for obtaining its stated objectives
- A copy of the organization's 501 (c) (3) tax exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service
- A copy of the organization's most recent financial statements
- A list of the members of the organization's governing board
- A detailed description of any proposed special project
- The program's measurable goals
- An itemized plan outlining how the organization intends to achieve those goals
- Any additional literature that further defines the organization's goals and achievements such as annual reports, fund raising literature, auditor's report, etc.

The USG Foundation staff reviews all written grant proposals. If the program meets the USG Foundation overall objectives, the proposal will then be presented to the USG Foundation board of directors for further review. Personal interviews with representatives of grant-requesting organizations are normally not required and, in any case would not take place until after the written proposal has been reviewed. All grant proposals should be directed to:
