Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

Briefly describe the organization's mission

NSF International is dedicated to being the leading global provider of public health and safety-based risk management solutions, while serving the interests of all stakeholders. These stakeholders include the public, the business community, and government agencies

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 46,332,712 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 63,582,946)

The NSF Water Division certifies products that come into contact with drinking water, such products include plumbing components, water treatment chemicals, drinking water filters, and pool & spa equipment. NSF pioneered the development of the American National Standards for all materials and products which treat (or come in contact with) drinking water, to help protect public health and the environment, and minimize adverse health effects. In 1990, the U.S. EPA replaced its own drinking water product advisory program with these NSF standards. Today, most plumbing codes require certification to NSF standards for pipes and plumbing components in commercial and residential buildings.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 19,860,747 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 27,255,198)

The NSF Food Safety Division of the not-for-profit NSF International includes both Food Equipment and Nonfood Compounds certification. The Food Equipment program tests and certifies food equipment products for acceptance across the US, Europe and other global markets. The Nonfood Compounds Program offers risk management solutions for nonfood compounds and proprietary substances (i.e., lubricants, cleaners and water treatment chemicals used in food and beverage processing).

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 5,999,855 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 8,233,644)

The NSF Pharma Division offers reference standards, certification, training, consulting, research/development, and auditing services for the pharmaceutical and dietary supplement industries.

b A family member of a person described in (a) above?	11b
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in (a) or (b) above? If "Yes" to a, b, or c, provide detail in Part VI.	11c

Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Explanation

Form 990, Part VI,
Section B, line 11

Prior to the filing of the 990, a completed copy of the 990 is posted on the board of director's website All Board Members have access to the 990 and can download and review the document The audit/finance committee (comprised of members of the board of directors) is responsible for monitoring this process and for confirming that the 990 is posted to the website in a timely manner

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each year, all officers and directors must specifically state, in writing, any potential conflicts of interest that they may have. These documents are kept as part of the permanent board records, and all potential conflicts are reviewed by human resources. In addition, all employees are required to undergo an online training course annually. As part of this training course, all employees are reminded of the conflict of interest policy, and are told to report any conflicts of interest to human resources.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Each year during the January board meeting and after the publication of the prior year financial results, the compensation committee (comprised of members of the board of directors) reviews the compensation of all corporate officers and board members and recommends adjustments to compensation, as necessary. The full board of directors reviews the recommendations of the compensation committee and approves adjustments to compensation, if deemed appropriate. This compensation review/recommendation/approval process was last done in January 2015. In addition, compensation studies are performed periodically by an outside firm to assist the compensation committee in the review of officer's compensation. The last compensation study was performed in May 2015.
