The L&L Educational Foundation

Rules Governing Grants

The payment of approved grants is subject to Foundation policies and procedures, including the following:

Costs Reimbursed

The Foundation provides grants to cover only those costs associated with the educational program you described in your application.

1. Tuition
2. Registration and course related fees
3. Books
4. Course related supplies such as software and lab equipment as stipulated in the course syllabus.
5. Foundation grants are not intended to be used for the purchase of computer hardware or for capital equipment purchases of any kind.

Enrollment

To be eligible to receive payments under an approved grant, you must enroll and continue to be enrolled in the educational program described in your application.

The Foundation may terminate payments if you do not enter that program, if you cease to be enrolled (due to voluntary withdrawal, expulsion, leave of absence, transfer to another institution or for any other reason), or if you significantly reduce your course load.

Required Documentation

Grant recipients are required to furnish complete information on a continuing basis about their participation in the educational programs described in this application and the costs associated with those programs, including:

1. Official transcripts and other information about grades, courses of study, hours, honors and academic progress.
2. Notification about any probationary status and academic or other discipline.
3. Copies of invoices, receipts and other materials sufficient to verify the expenses incurred
Please note: registration receipts must detail the classes for which the grant recipient is enrolled.

The Foundation may terminate an approved grant if any of the preceding information is not furnished in a timely manner.

Unused Funds

All unused grant payments and all grant payments you use for unapproved purposes must be refunded to the Foundation promptly. Funds used for classes that the grant recipient ultimately withdraws from shall be considered unused.

False or Misleading Information

The Foundation may terminate an approved grant and may require reimbursement of amounts it has previously paid if you provide information that is false or materially misleading.

The L&L Educational Foundation

Privacy Policy

The L&L Educational Foundation ("Foundation") is committed to responsible information handling practices. The privacy of your personal information is important to us. To help you understand how we protect the information we receive about you this notice describes our privacy policy and practices.

Types of information we collect

- Information that we receive from you on applications, forms and correspondence. Examples include your name, address, phone numbers, e-mail address, educational history, employment history, income declaration.
- Information that was received from institutions which was requested and authorized by you. An example includes transcripts from educational institutions you have attended.

How we use this information

- The Foundation uses the information to process your grant application
- If awarded a grant, the Foundation uses the information to process your grant payments and verify that these payments were used for their intended purpose

Whom we may share this information with

This information is shared with The L&L Educational Foundation's Grantee Selection Committee, which includes individuals, often the district's superintendent, employed by school districts in the area. The Grantee Selection Committee is responsible for evaluating grant applications and making grant awards.

Security procedures that are in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of information

- We employ internal access controls to ensure that the only people who see your information are those with a need to do so to perform their official duties.
- We eliminate or blackout all discernable references to birth date or social security number before providing your application information to the Grantee Selection Committee.
- We physically secure the areas where we hold hard copies of information.
- We use technical controls to secure information that is maintained electronically including firewalls and password protections. In addition, we regularly back up the information that is maintained electronically to ensure against loss.

Whom can I CONTACT if I have questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy? If you have questions about our Privacy Policy, telephone or e-mail Peggy Domenick-Muscat, President (586) 336-1608 / edfoundation @llproducts.com

The L&L Educational Foundation
2014 Grant Application

Due April 1, 2014

The L&L Educational Foundation

Grant Program Overview

The Foundation

The L & L Educational Foundation was established in 1987 by Mr. Robert Ligon and Mr. W. Eugene Lane ("Bob and Gene") to assist L&L Products, Inc. employees, their spouse and children obtain an education which may not have been available to them without assistance or hardship on their family.

The goal of the Foundation is to provide educational grants to as many worthy applicants as possible in order to assist those individuals in attaining an education that will benefit the applicant and society in a positive way.

Eligibility

- Employees of L&L Products, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, with at least one year of employment seniority as of April 1, 2014.
- Former employees of L&L Products, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, no longer employed with the Company due to disability, retirement or death.

Who May Apply

- Employees of L&L Products, Inc.
- Employee's Spouse
- Employee's Children
- Employee's Step Children - children must live with the employee
- Children for whom the employee is the permanent legal guardian.
- Renewal Applicants - any individual who was awarded a grant from the Foundation in the prior year may apply whether or not the family member under whom they originally qualified currently meets the eligibility requirements.

Important Information

- Grant awards are intended to support adult educational endeavors, specifically, educational efforts undertaken to prepare one for a future career or to enhance a current career.
- Grants are awarded yearly and cover the following academic year.
- Federal regulations limit the number of grants that may be awarded. For example, only 10% of the eligible L&L Products, Inc. employees that apply may receive a grant from the Foundation
- Grant award decisions are made by the Foundation Grantee Selection Committee. This Committee is comprised of administrators from local school districts. There are no L&L Products employees on the Selection Committee.
- Applicants will be notified as to whether they have been awarded a grant no later than June 30, 2014
