Attachment to Form 990-PF
Graef, Anhalt, Schloemer Foundation, Inc.
EIN: 39-2033285

On December 28, 2000, the Articles of Incorporation of Graef, Anhalt, Schloemer Foundation, Inc. (hereafter "Foundation") were filed with the State of Wisconsin Department of Financial Institutions, thus creating a nonstock corporation under Chapter 181 of the Wisconsin Statutes. Pursuant to Article III of said Articles of Incorporation, the purpose of the Corporation was and continues to be:

The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

From the date of the creation of the above-referenced corporation through the present date the corporation was and continues to be in good standing.

Although the purpose of the Foundation is stated broadly, at the time the Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption, was filed with the Internal Revenue Service, the focus of the officers and directors was to provide scholarships for post-secondary engineering students at a college or university that qualifies as an educational institution under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code. On January 13, 2004, the Internal Revenue Service issued a determination letter indicating that the Foundation was a private foundation and was exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3). The determination letter indicated in part that [the] "determination is based on evidence that your funds are dedicated to the purposes listed in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code."

Since its inception, the Foundation has made scholarships to individual students based on the criteria set forth in the Form 1023 and pursuant to the requirements set forth in the above-referenced determination letter. Funds of the Foundation have grown considerably over the years. The Foundation will continue to dedicate all funds to the purposes listed in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, but make charitable distributions in addition to the scholarships as described in the Form 1023. All such distributions are and shall continue to be used exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Examples of use of the Foundation's funds, in addition to direct scholarships, are the following:

- 1) Continue with the mission of awarding scholarships, but not to individual students directly. Donations shall be made to scholarship funds at engineering schools within colleges and universities that qualify as the educational institutions under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code. The staff at the schools shall select the recipients. Examples of such engineering schools include, without limitation, Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Milwaukee School of Engineering, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, Wisconsin; and other colleges and universities within the University of Wisconsin System. In addition, donations may be made to scholarship funds created through professional organizations, including, without limitation, The American Society of Civil Engineers, The Construction Specifications Institute, and other professional engineering societies. Professional organizations were referenced in the Form 1023.

- 2) Donations to an engineering school at a qualified college or university through which all engineering students may benefit. For example, a donation may be made to the University of Wisconsin-Madison Fund for the construction of a structural laboratory.
- 3) Donations to a public foundation at an institution of higher learning, such as the UW Foundation, to help construct an educational facility.
- 4) Donations to fund professorial chairs and other professorial positions at qualified engineering schools in order to provide the best education possible for the engineering students at large.
- 5) Other donations within the scope of the Foundation's broad charitable purpose including, without limitation, the following:
 - A. Milwaukee Zoological Society for use or construction and maintenance of exhibits at the Milwaukee County Zoo.
 - B. Engineers Without Borders to assist in its non-profit work for the benefit of mankind.
 - C. Habitat for Humanity to assist with the construction of housing that would otherwise not be available to a population.
 - D. Rotary Foundation for the purpose of purchasing of eradicating polio throughout the world.

All such distributions shall be made within the purpose set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of the Foundation and pursuant to the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation shall maintain records of distributions as required by the Internal Revenue Service and report all such distributions on its Form 990-PF.
