Form 990, Part III Line 4d: Community Services (Expenses 158,039 including grants of $25,000, Revenue $18,273) United Way works to bring together community members including agency partners, government, schools, business, individuals, and faith-based organizations to identify the underlying causes of problems in our community and develop strategies and partnerships to address those issues. United Way also funds 2-1-1, an anonymous helpline to call to access an extensive database of community resources. Additionally, local nonprofits are able to rent office space or meeting space in the United Way Community Services Building at a reduced rate.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b: A draft form of the 990 is emailed to all members of the board for review. If necessary, changes are made. The board then votes (either electronically or at a regularly scheduled meeting) to approve the return for filing. Once approved, the completed form 990 is filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c: All board members and committee volunteers are required to complete a conflict of interest form annually. The President reviews completed forms and keeps them on file at the organization. Board or committee members shall abstain from voting on an issue of conflict. Board members or their families shall not benefit unfairly in any manner as a result of being a board member.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a: The executive director and any officers or key employees are covered under United Way Blackhawk Region employee policies and procedures. The executive committee of the board conducts an annual review of the President and reports a recommendation to the board for approval as appropriate within the approved budget. The President evaluates and determines salary changes for other officers and key staff. Research from United Way Worldwide is used to obtain comparable salary and benefit information.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19: The Organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public upon request.
