Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Organization is a fiscal agent for the Family Sexual Abuse Treatment Program (FSATP). The Organization deposits and disburses funds for the FSATP and recognizes the cash balance and a related liability in its financial statements. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, the cash held for fiscal agency transactions was $88,394 and $91,839.
Part V, Line 4	The Organization's policy is to maintain sufficient financial stability for the operations of the Organization. Interest and dividends, net of investment expense, are to be transferred to the temporarily restricted endowment fund until the Board determines that the funds be used. In establishing this policy, the Organization considered the long-term expected return on its endowments. The Organization's spending policy states that distributions can be made providing that distributions made do not result in the fund decreasing below the Board's designated or the donor's contribution basis, and the corpus of the donor restricted endowment will be maintained in perpetuity. In the case of donor restricted funds, the spending policy, as established, allows for distributions of the income and net appreciation, both realized and unrealized, at a range of 4% to 6% of the fair value of the endowment assets.
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is organized as a North Dakota nonprofit corporation and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). The Organization is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the Organization is subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purpose. The organization has been determined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Return (Form 990T) with the IRS. The Organization believes that it has appropriate support for any tax position taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The Organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, line 2	In 2014, the Organization began providing batterers treatment
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1	The Organization had an Executive Committee consisting of the President, Vice President, Past President, Secretary, Treasurer and Nominations Chair of the Board for part of the year. The Executive Committee had the responsibility of requesting the resignation of existing board members, and the reinstatement of individuals that had previously resigned. However, with the changes to the governance structure during 2014, all committees were dissolved.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4	The number of voting board members changed from being no less than nine and up to fifteen members to no fewer than nine and up to eleven.
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b	During 2014 all committees were dissolved so there are no longer any committees with the authority to act on behalf of the board.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Executive Director and Business Director will review a draft of the 990. Upon its completion, the Form 990 will be distributed via email to the Board of Directors prior to the final copy being filed.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All board members and officers are covered by this policy. Both the determination of whether a conflict exists and the level that actual conflicts are reviewed are first reviewed at the Executive Director level, and if necessary at the board level. If a board member is found to have a conflict of interest, they are not allowed to vote on the issue for which a conflict of interest is determined.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	During 2014 a comprehensive salary study was completed using peer institution data regarding salaries and benefits. From that process industry means were developed for each position in the agency, including the Executive Director and Business Director. Employee performance and accomplishments are used to determine where one falls within an identified range. Compensation and wage increases are reviewed on an annual basis by the Board and are approved as part of the annual budget process. The comprehensive salary study process will be completed every third year, and final approval of ranges and increases will rest with the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Rape and Abuse Crisis Center of Fargo-Moorhead keeps copies of its Form 990, its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
