this by providing parent education and support services to families of incarcerated parents; including children, their guardians as well as the incarcerated parent. We believe that just because a parent has committed a crime does not stop them from being a parent or make them a bad parent. However, the incarcerated parent has a strong influence on their children and family. PWP has a plan and is committed to serve as a positive influence in the lives of children affected by a parent's incarceration. Currently, PWP is the only organization in Minnesota who provides services to the entire family affected by parental incarceration. PWP focuses on families in the Twin Cities metro area.
