The SKCFC provided a venue and framework for South King County food banks to share challenges, problem solve and support positive solutions and best practices, for the betterment of our communities. These meetings and support create strength and a collective voice in representing the needs of the region to and with larger foundations and corporations, supply partners, vendors, and government agencies.

Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP) lead agency/contractor

The SKCFC administers and manages a contract with Washington State Dept. of Agriculture that provides funds for food banks.

These funds are utilized by participating food banks in a variety of ways to support and strengthen the positive impact of their services in their communities. How this grant is allocated across the participating food banks for South King County is determined by vote on an allocation formula agreed to by agencies. These funds are then used for food purchases, staffing costs, equipment repair costs and any other needs directly related to providing strong reliable services and nutritious food to people in need.
