| Part X, Line 2                        | The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, Kanakuk had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Kanakuk files information tax returns in the U S and various states. Kanakuk is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2011. |

| Part I, Line 2   | The schools in Haiti send ongoing reports with financial information on how funds are being spent towards relief and ministry efforts. Management also takes a mission trip there once a year to monitor progress. Two other grants are made to US organizations for purpose of foreign programs (Food for the Hungry and Compassion International). Kanakuk gets receipt information on where the money is going and what children are being supported. The last grant made to South America is monitored by reaching out to the Ministries to confirm the utilization of funds. Correspondence received back is either via newsletter or email. |
