Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation

Organization Name (approved 9/4/14):

This Amendment hereby changes the name of this organization to “The Firestarter Group”. All business conducted under the former name (“Dharma Charitable Strategies”) shall be continued under this new name. Any formal agreements previously entered into by this organization will continue to be honored. All documents of formation and business documents shall reflect this change once a Certificate of Amendment has been filed with The State of Texas.

Organization purpose (approved 9/4/14):

The Firestarter Group is a nonprofit corporation dedicated to providing program planning and oversight at low cost or no cost to charitable groups that could otherwise not afford it. Our goal is to provide low-income community groups necessary support for community development at low or no cost to their organization. Locally, our nonprofit focuses on serving organizations throughout Houston, TX with the highest degree of managerial services and strategic planning, regardless of their ability to financially compensate highly developed human capital. Globally, we support under-resourced social development groups in the Horn of Africa by acting as a fundraising channel and undertaking awareness campaigns to highlight the work they are performing, which would otherwise go unnoticed. Our aim is to direct bright, energetic minds towards the areas of greatest social need. With support from our donors, we are able to break through the financial barriers that have historically prevented deserving organizations from obtaining an adequate degree of professional support in order to bring their communities out of poverty and plan for a better tomorrow.
