Form 990 Section III Detail Information

OUTSIDE:

- ❖ With the renovation and subsequent opening of our new offices in the old City Hall building this past September, our Case Management Program has been expanded to full operational capacity. We have experienced over 100 contacts and our staff of 8 case managers are now facilitating the accountability and Life Plan needs of over 50 active clients, all of whom are residing in McDowell County. We have several clients in job training, and have helped the majority of our clients find full time jobs. We have also helped with finding housing and providing transportation. We have also provided multiple hours of pastoral care and counseling to our clients in addition to providing two different support group opportunities.
- ❖ We also have a new DSS Child Services Liaison that has assisted with the needs of several clients as they are working to be reconciled with their children.
- ❖ We have also launched our own Housing Facilitation Coalition that is putting together an informed data base of Reality Companies and individual Land Lords that will partner with Freedom Life Ministries in making good housing available to our clients.
- ❖ We have also launched a new "C" corporation named "Freedom Life Enterprises". This new corporation was launched in January and is facilitating the launching of three new businesses in McDowell County that exist to offer jobs and job training to former offender clients of Freedom Life Ministries. Two clients have already been hired. The "C" corporation is set up totally separate from Freedom Life Ministries in corporate structure and is not connected to Freedom Life Ministries organizationally or financially. However, we are mutually partnered in our goal to address the personal and job needs of former offenders.
- ❖ We have also continued to build interagency relationships with many agencies in McDowell County as we continue to work as a Local Reentry Council Intermediary Agency with the North Carolina Department of Public Safety.
- ❖ We also were able to host our first annual Community Partnership Celebration event where David Guice, the Commissioner of the Division of Adult Correction and Juvenile Justice with the North Carolina Department of Public Safety, was the main speaker.
- ❖ The bottom line numbers are that the client number of 12 former offender clients that we were able to keep out of jail and prison in the 2013-2014 budget year has been tripled in the 2014-2015 budget year. Over 36 of our former offender clients have not just been kept out of jail and prison, but are well on their way to sustained long term life transformation. The over 36 clients we have helped stay out of incarceration represents an approximate savings to the county and state of $936,000.

- ❖ We also have an additional 14 clients that we are working with inside the McDowell County jail that have not yet been released. We have initiated a deliberate strategy to begin forming client relationships with men and women before they are released from jail in order to be better prepared to work with them in a successful way once they are released.

INSIDE:

- ❖ Over 1000 hours of chaplaincy work has been provided inside the Marion Correctional Facility and the Marion Minimum Security Unit. These hours include over 250 pastoral one-on-one counseling sessions, two semesters of fathering classes that awarded 22 inmates with state graduating certificates, over 150 Bible studies, providing meals, working with the Community Resource Council, coordinating volunteers, and administrating chapel needs and operations.
- ❖ As mentioned in the above section, we have continued to work with the McDowell County Jail administration in developing organizational infrastructure that will facilitate one-on-one case management opportunities with male and female inmates.
