What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

To promote the clinical use and public awareness of transcranial magnetic stimulation and to promote the common business interest of, and improve the business conditions for, transcranial magnetic stimulation professionals

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 In January 2013, the Clinical TMS Society was established as a not-for-profit trade association - a Connecticut non-stock corporation. The Society includes TMS providers with extensive clinical and research experience from across the United States and the world. The Society hopes to assist members in optimizing the administration of TMS, develop novel indications for TMS therapy, expand insurance coverage, and increase public awareness of TMS. During 2014, the Clinical TMS Society hosted an annual meeting of approximately 225 TMS professionals from around the world.
