Dear Tommy –

Thank you again for your generous hospitality sponsorship and support of $1,250 for the Melee 'til Midnight wrestling tournament and the Eric Monday Memorial Wrestling Foundation. We also appreciate your donation of 50 breakfast burritos, chips, queso, bean dips and appetizer trays! These were incredibly well received and recognized!

Your sponsorship included recognition with four banners, mat signage, prominent logo on our volunteer t-shirts and logo recognition on the website. We ensured that Anita's was visible in its support of the tournament and the foundation's goals!

This year included nearly 400 wrestlers with their families and friends and 125 energized local volunteers. Wrestlers participated from 17 states creating an extraordinary level of competition. It was truly a memorable experience recognized by dedicated fans throughout Northern Virginia and the multi-state area. Though Mother Nature drove us inside with torrential rain and tornado warnings, we were happy to have the opportunity to foster some terrific wrestling. Our volunteers made it a memorable experience covering all the logistics for what is become recognized as THE outdoor wrestling event in the United States.

We also delivered the Eric Monday Memorial Wrestling Foundation's message to "Take Down the Stigma" of mental health issues -- particularly among athletes. The Foundation is now active in working through grants, mental health awareness for coaches and other initiatives. Without your support these initiatives are not possible.

Tommy - We want to personally thank you and the team at Anita's for your extraordinary support for this year and in the past. All of us value your support and friendship!
