AFO has a field representative, David Geffers, who lives SE Asia 2-6 months a year. While there, he spends time at the various children's homes, assisting with maintenance and facility upkeep. He also becomes acquainted with the caregivers and the children to confirm their needs are being met. He observes the care given to the children, their diet, medical care, and educational arrangements. David communicates with the executive director of AFO-USA by e-mail and phone with up-to-the minute reports. He also sends pictures and video clips of the homes and the children to be shared with the board of directors and financial supporters.
