Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - The credit union is exempt by statute from most federal, state and local income taxes under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and state tax laws. However, the credit union is liable for tax on certain products and services such as car warranties and non-member ATM surcharges which have been deemed by the IRS to be unrelated to the credit union's exempt purpose. The net taxable income from these products/services is subject to income tax under the Unrelated Business Income Tax (UBIT) regulations. The credit union has filed form 990-T for these items. The credit union management accepts recent court decisions involving credit unions and the IRS, and has determined that the credit union has limited income derived from non-exempt sources.
