form 990 part vi section b line 15a & 15b	The Board of Directors annually reviews and determines the President/CEO's salary and records its deliberation and decision in the Board Minutes. Input such as compensation studies, comparisons to similar organizations and other data are requested from the organization's Human Resource Department as needed by the Board for determining the President/CEO's salary

form 990 part iii line 4b & 4c	program service accomplishments (continued from page 2) children of prisoners program. These forgotten children must fend for themselves on the streets. Tens of thousands of others grow up inside prisons in horrid conditions with their parents because they have nowhere else to live. They're exploited, subject to physical and emotional abuse, stigmatized, and unable to thrive. Children of prisoners are also far more likely to end up in prison as adults than those whose parents never served time. In an effort to break this cycle, PFI provides the following to the 4,000 Children of Prisoners enrolled in this program: the Gospel message and Bibles, food and clothing, medical care, job placement and training, victim-offender reconciliation programs, and more. The prisoners' journey: They are broken, marginalized, hidden away from society. Prisoners around the world suffer from inhumane living conditions and broken justice systems. They endure spiritual emptiness and despair, overcrowded and unhealthy living conditions, dirty, unsafe water, hunger and malnutrition, little or no medical attention for the sick, lack of legal knowledge or due process. It is not just the prisoners who are traumatized by incarceration. Their families-especially the children of prisoners-are also caught in a cycle of poverty and despair that can repeat for generations. Prison Fellowship International is uniquely positioned to address the growing crisis. Through this program aimed at spreading the Gospel, combatting unjust conditions, and restoring justice, we are ready to implement a lasting solution.
